cases of mild hazing.

Whatever hazing has been done seems to be aimed mostly at the small boys who have been allowed to enter the institute. The old ruen object to having undersized men or small boys appear in the castet uniform. They desire that uniform to represent manly and soldierly bearing. A few boys have left the institute, but it is thought they are of the disgrunted kind who are making a pretext of hazing. Many rate interviewed, say they have not been hazed at all.
